

QUALITY APPRENTICESHIPS

Recognising leading employers in apprenticeships.

Quality Apprenticeships accreditation is designed to acknowledge best practice in the employment of apprentices.

Based on international quality frameworks, this accreditation allows businesses to highlight the positive impacts of their apprenticeship programs and encourages continued improvement.

About accreditation

Developed by the Global Apprenticeship Network (GAN) Australia in collaboration with international partners, the accreditation system has been designed by experts in apprenticeships.

It uses the International Labour Organization (ILO) Recommendation for quality apprenticeships, which was endorsed at the 2023 International Labour Conference by 187 countries.

Accredited employers get access to the Quality Apprenticeships seal for their country and receive a certificate of accreditation.

GLOBAL APPRENTICESHIP NETWORK AUSTRALIA

We aim to create a better future for individuals and businesses through enhanced quality apprenticeships in Australia and learning from international best practice.

About us

At GAN Australia our purpose is to embed GAN concepts within an Australian context, catering to the distinct economic, cultural, and institutional needs present at the national and local level.

We are part of an international network supported by the ILO, IOE and OECD.

We aim to:

- Strengthen the commitment and visibility of organisations' engagement in apprenticeships.
- Support apprentices to develop their personal capacity and their skills.
- Share best practice in apprenticeships, mentoring and on-the-job training.
- Encourage a network of committed organisations to support effective knowledge sharing, action, and partnerships.
