

Responsibilities and reporting against ILO Recommendation: Australia

ILO Recommendation concerning quality apprenticeships	Government	Reporting elements	Global quality apprenticeships employer accreditation
I. Definitions, scope and means of implementation	Federal government (DEWR)	Government VET frameworks	Background information
II. Regulatory framework for quality apprenticeships	Federal (DEWR) and state governments	Government VET frameworks Employer accreditation	Employers performance
III. Protection of apprentices	Federal government (Fair Work)	Government data Employer accreditation	Correct wages & conditions Workplace health, safety & wellbeing
IV. Apprenticeship agreement	Federal (DEWR) and state governments	Government data Employer accreditation	Youth employment Correct wages & conditions
V. Equality and diversity in quality apprenticeships	Various state and Federal	Government data Employer accreditation	Equality & diversity
VI. Promotion of quality apprenticeships	Federal (DEWR) plus state governments	Government data Employer accreditation	Mentoring, PD and lifelong learning Youth employment
VII. International, regional and national cooperation for quality apprenticeships	ILO GAN & National Networks Federal government	Government VET frameworks	Benchmarking between countries & industries Tracking employer data and trends

Note: A darker colour indicates a stronger Australian response